Applicant's amendments and remarks filed 6/12/02 have been received and reviewed. Claims 1-6 and 9-11 are now pending in this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 9 is again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is still not known which disorder or condition can be effected or facilitated by activating ORL1-receptor and which disorder or condition is not. One skilled in the art cannot say for sure whether a given disorder or condition can be effected or facilitated by activating ORL1-receptor or not.

Claims 9 and 10 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling as a method of treating pain, does not reasonably provide enablement for treating all of the other disorders or conditions recited in the claims. The basis of this rejection is the same as given in the previous office action and is incorporated herein fully by reference. Applicants argue that no sufficient reason has been given. However, several points were raised in the previous office action to none of which Applicants have responded. Applicants' reliance on the Brana decision is erroneous since the facts were different in more than one respect from the instant case. Compounds on appeal were of a much narrower scope and there were no method claims. Said compounds were similar in structure to compounds displaying in vivo anti-tumor activity based on art-recognized in vivo tests and also tested favorably in an in vivo test. Thus contrary to Brana it is not evident that at the time of applicants' effective filing that the instant compounds having such a diversity of substituents and a diverse "core" could be used for treating any and all cancers, hyperproliferative cellular disease or diseases associated with angiogenesis.

Double Patenting

Claims 1-6 and 9-11 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-9 of U.S. Patent No. 6,172,067. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the two sets of claims overlap substantially. Applicants are required to maintain a clear line of demarcation between the applications. See MPEP § 822.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claims 1-6 and 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ito et al. (US 6,172,067). The reference teaches a generic group of benzimidazole derivatives which embraces applicants' claimed compounds (See cols 1-3, compounds of formula (I) and definitions for R, A and Y). The basis of this rejection is the same as given in the previous office action and is incorporated herein fully by reference. Applicants argue that the instant claims are not obvious. However, the claims are indeed obvious over Ito et al. as explained in the previous office action.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
